ELIGIBILITY AND CONDITIONS

- You must be a current member of Contemporary Art Tasmania to submit work.
- Become a member or renew your membership at www.contemporaryarttasmania.org/membership
- One artwork per member
- Artwork must be clearly labelled with artist name
- Installed works must not exceed 100cm in any dimension (delivered works exceeding this limitation may be omitted from the exhibition).
- Due to installation constraints, artworks that are complicated, require the loan of Contemporary Art Tasmania equipment or are time-consuming to install are to be negotiated with staff prior to delivery.
- Artwork must be available for the full duration of the exhibition and cannot be collected until the designated collection period.
- Clear and detailed hanging instructions must accompany the artwork. While every effort will be made to comply with the artists instructions, Contemporary Art Tasmania reserves the right to hang work as it deems appropriate.
- Artwork which is hazardous to the public or does not comply with the Australia Council for the Arts document: Protocols for Working with Children in Art (December 2008) will not be exhibited.
- Artwork MUST be collected from Contemporary Art Tasmania between 19–21 December 2023. CAT will be closed for the holiday break from 22 December and artworks will not be able to be picked up until CAT reopens in February
- If you foresee difficulty in collecting your work by this time, please contact us to make alternate arrangements. If the artwork has not been collected by this time and alternative arrangements have not been made, Contemporary Art Tasmania may, after having made all reasonable efforts to notify the artist, return the artwork to the artists at their expense or dispose of it.
- By submitting works you are agreeing to Contemporary Art Tasmania to photograph works and use images for future promotion purposes with artist and photographer credit.
