

The crisis consists precisely in the fact that the old is dying and the new cannot be born; in this interregnum a great variety of morbid symptoms appear.

Antonio Gramsci, Selections from the Prison Notebooks, trans. And ed. Quintin Hoare and Geoffrey Lowell Smith (New York International Publishers,), p. 276

Politicians used to have the confidence to tell us stories that made sense of the chaos of world events. But now, there are no big stories, and politicians react randomly to every new crisis—leaving us bewildered and disorientated.

All that you touch
You Change.
All that you Change
Changes you.
The only lasting truth
Is Change.
God Is Change."
